

Monday, 10 February 2014

Good evening my beloved [scribe]. It pleases me to see that you are earnest in the practice of being my scribe, wishing to do my Holy Will to spread my teachings among mankind. It is good that you have taken on the role of being my scribe seriously. Mankind will soon enter a dark period my son, where there will be much suffering amongst those of my children who refuse to listen to my admonitions to turn back to me their loving Father. I have shown them much patience and have given them many warnings to turn back and start to follow me their loving Father. But they choose not to listen to me, to not follow my teachings and move further away from me, down a road which will only lead to suffering and death. Their eyes and ears are closed, their hearts have become cold and uncaring. They no longer care about their neighbours and only practice self indulgence, selfishness and the pursuit of pleasures of all kinds. It is for these reasons that I am preparing a great Universal Judgement for these wicked children who have lost their way, have ignored my repeated calls to turn back to me their loving Heavenly Father.

My dear children who read these messages, please do not think that I take pleasure in punishing my wayward children. Sometimes a parent needs to provide stronger medicine to his sick children before they can get better from the illnesses that they have. The illnesses of hate, revenge, materialism, gluttony, the pursuit of worldly power, jealousy and whole raft of other illnesses just to mention a few. I have repeatedly stated that time is short for my children to change their ways. This, my dear ones, is something that I would like you to tell your brothers and sisters. There is only a very finite amount of time, a short period in which my hand will bring down this Universal Judgement upon mankind.

Do not be afraid of what my scribe has faithfully written down in these pages. You, my dear ones, who love your Heavenly Father will be spared from all calamities that will soon befall mankind. For these calamities are meant to teach my wayward children through hardship and adversity that they were created for a higher purpose than merely the pursuit of worldly pleasures and money and worldly power. These hardships will teach them that they are subject to higher power, a power that is based on the eternal love of their Heavenly Father who does not want to lose them to the adversary and his false promises which have blinded much of mankind.

Go ahead my children, do not be afraid to tell your brothers and sisters that the time is short in which they can repent and turn to me, their loving Father and ask for help, to help and assist them through the difficult times ahead. Turn to me, my dear ones, in relation to all challenges and difficulties in your lives. I will not forsake you. I will be there by your side to help you step by step in the dark days to come. Do not worry my dear ones, put all your faith in me and I shall lead you and your families to greener pastures where you shall spend eternity with me your loving Heavenly Father. I will guide you and your family personally in the difficult times ahead. I will provide you with everything you will need to survive. Do not concern yourselves or have any fear regarding these messages. You are part of my flock and I, as your good shepherd, will guide you and your families to greener pastures where you will be safe from the calamities that will befall the rest of mankind.

Please understand my dear ones, that I take no pleasure in chastising my wayward children yet I know, in all my love and wisdom, that if I do not provide my wayward children with this stronger medicine, that many more of my children will be lost to my adversary. For his ways are wicked and he seeks to totally control and subjugate all my children on the earth plane. I cannot allow him to do this. In this way, many of my children will awaken from the slumber that they have been in. Through suffering, they will come to realise the impermanent nature of their lives on the earth plane. They will begin to realise that the pursuit of money, wealth, power and other riches is only an illusion that the adversary has created to subdue them. For it is my holy will that I wish mankind's eyes to open, so that they can see that there are eternal spiritual treasures that await them if only they turn back to me their loving Heavenly Father who only wants what is best for his children.

I wish my children to prepare themselves on the earth plane for eternal bliss and happiness with me in my heavens. My adversary only wants death and destruction for my children as he knows that I love my children above all else and he wishes to deprive me of them. He believes that he will succeed by being aggressive in these End Times, together with his followers. He will soon come to understand the futility of all his and his followers efforts. For I am the creator of all of my children, of all celestial worlds, suns and galaxies. Everything originates from me and is thus subject to my Holy Will. It is my holy will that the adversary and his followers shall serve me their creator and loving Father. I will soon show them that everything they do in mistaken belief that it will harm me or my followers, shall have the opposite effect. It will bring all of my children back to me their loving Heavenly Father. Once they have realised this, they too shall change the path that they are on and shall return to me where I shall lovingly await their return home from where they originated. This is my Salvation Plan and the reason why I shall not rest until each and every last wayward child of mine has returned home where they shall serve me eternally and rise higher and higher in loving bliss in relation to each task that they do for me, their loving Father.

Go in peace my dear children and spread the words in these messages that my scribe has faithfully written down. Tell your friends and relatives about these messages and tell them to turn to me in all of their trials and tribulations and I shall not forsake them.

Tell them to turn to me in their hearts in loving prayer and seek my help. I will personally guide them through whatever hardships the world and its wicked spirit throws up at them. I give them my promise that I will look after them and lead and guide them. I will give them peace in their hearts and lead them to greener pastures.

This is all that I wish to say on this evening through my scribe who is getting tired. I give each of my children who read these messages my love and protection in the difficult times ahead. Do not worry my children, for your Heavenly Father knows what is best for all my children. The events that will come to pass on the earth plane will, through hardship, bring many more of my children back on the right path to their Heavenly Father.

Go in peace and in my love my children.

Good night – AMEN.
