

Thursday, 20 February 2014

Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus who is inspiring you to write down these message for the benefit of yourself as well as your brothers and sisters who will read these messages and receive the teachings that I will provide through my scribe.

Dear ones, there are very shortly going to be many changes that I will bring to the earth plane. Some of my children will be shocked and alarmed at the extent of the changes. Yet these changes are necessary to cleanse mankind of the filth, hatred and envy that mankind shows to one another. This is not what I intended for my children. I intended my children to love one another, to treat each other with dignity and kindness the way I meant you to do. Yet mankind has through the influence of the wicked spirit Satana, chosen a path that has led them away from me. It is my holy will that my children be brought back to the one true path that leads back to me, their loving Heavenly Father. It is through suffering now that I must lead my children back on the one True path to me their loving Heavenly Father.

This is why I have decided for the release of a universal judgement to teach my erring children, that they are on the wrong path. A path that leads to death and destruction. A path which I had never envisaged, nor intended for them. The form that the universal judgement will take, will begin with the war between Israel and Syria. This will escalate into a wider conflict that will draw in many if not all of Israel's and Syria's neighbours. This will culminate in the detonation by Israel of a nuclear device in Syria that will kill many innocent people. Through the pride and arrogance of the leaders of Israel, many innocent children will lose their lives. This is not a situation that I approve of. It is a situation that I condemn, as it is totally in opposition of the Law of Love that I taught my children of Israel when I taught Moses on Mt. Sinai, many, many years ago when I gave him my ten commandments to teach future generations to Love one another, to tolerate one another, to teach one another and help one another. I do not favour one nation over another.

Dear ones, you are all my children, no matter what the colour of your skin is, what religion or philosophy you practice or nationality that you come from. In my eyes, I love you all equally. I do not differentiate from one of my children to the other. I have given my teachings of Love to mankind right throughout all ages in human history, yet mankind chooses through the influence of the adversary to move further away from me, their one True loving God and fall further and deeper into perdition, in opposition to everything that is good, True and holy.

It is for these reasons that I must allow these events to happen. To teach my children through a great deal of suffering to let go of their ego's and pride. To begin on a new path of humility and love, back to their Heavenly Father who awaits them in his heavens.

The universal judgement that will take place will claim many lives but will not affect all of humanity. I will not provide you with the exact details of the date nor time that it will take place, but I will say that it will take the world by surprise. My children in Israel will greatly regret that they have not followed my teachings of love.

I will allow Israel's neighbours to overrun their country for a period of time as punishment for transgressing my laws, for acting contrary to my teachings of love, respect and dignity for your fellow mankind. These are matters that I foretold to John in the Book of Revelation that he wrote down through spiritual correspondences that I gave to him, which were to act as warnings for future generations of mankind. This is why I say once again through this scribe, that my words are holy and True. Nations will cease to exist, whole planetary systems will cease, yet every word that my scribe duly transcribes from my mouth will last for an eternity, for I will it that it be so.

Do not be scared by what my scribe has written for me in these pages. These writings are meant to forewarn you of events to come so that you can teach your brothers and sisters that the suffering that is to come to mankind in the near future are meant to cleanse mankind of their false pride and arrogance and complete disregard for their fellow brothers and sisters. Do not be afraid to tell others about what you read in these pages. Spread the words that I have given in these pages. It is not I who wishes his children to suffer all kinds of hardships, but yet they are necessary to stop my children falling totally away from me at the mercy of the adversary who will show them no mercy whatsoever. He despises my children because he knows that I love them above all else and he wishes to deprive me of that which I love the most – you, my beloved children. He is planning much death and destruction for mankind my dear ones, but I will not allow his plans for the total destruction of mankind and this planet to take place. This he did on another planet that existed in this solar system called Maloma, many, many eons ago. The remnants of this former planet still exist in the asteroid belt that surrounds the outer reaches of this solar system. The adversary wishes to do the same thing to this planet and its inhabitants to deprive me of my children whom he and his followers try to influence to turn away from me, their loving Father and creator.

The adversary and his followers shall not achieve their aims for I have other plans for my wayward children to return back home to me in my heavens, where I await them.

Please do not think that this is some sort of cosmic game where you, my loved ones are the pawns. You, my dear ones, are that which I love the most. You are the reason for all my creations. You, I want to share in the love, bliss and peace that I meant for you, my dear ones, since the beginning when I created you. The adversary knows this and because he is in opposition to me at this point in time, he is attempting every cunning trick that he can to turn you away from me and my Plan of Salvation of mankind. Because he knows that there is very little time left, he and his followers are getting very aggressive. You must resist all temptations that he and his followers send your way. Pray for world peace, my dear ones as your prayers will greatly reduce the severity and length of the wars and the hard and difficult times ahead.

I your Good Shepherd do not wish to see my children suffering, but you must understand that the events that will come are necessary to cleanse the world of the many ailments that it has, so that it can, once cleansed, enter into a new period of peace and love whereby mankind will learn to live with one another in love and peace in the manner in which I taught my children of Israel originally, all those years ago.

Please teach your brothers and sisters what I have written here through my scribe. He will assist me to forewarn mankind of the events which shall shortly take place on the earth plane. Please teach your brothers and sisters to love one another, to be kind to one another, to teach one another and help one another. These are the simple tenets of my Doctrine of Love which I wish you to teach one another.

The time is short, my dear ones, before the events that will be foretold by my scribe will take place. Pray for one another and Love one another and the length and severity of what will come will be shortened through my mercy for you my children, who I love above all else.

Go in peace and Love my dear ones – Amen.
