Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus speaking to you within these words that you are writing here. I wish you to come to me for all your needs [my scribe]. There is no cosmic game that I am putting you through [my scribe] and the children that read these words. The time you spend on the earth plane maturing your souls is very important towards your learning, growth and development.

Your soul needs these earthly experiences to mature itself. To spiritualise its soul particles which once belonged to Satana the fallen spirit as well as countless soul particles that belong to myriads of my fallen children that comprise all of my physical creations throughout the universe. I wish all my fallen children on the earth plane to know their origin, that they were created spirit and were created perfect. It was through the influence of my first created spirit Satana that they were convinced to turn their backs on me. They rejected my love emanations which are crucial to sustain life and activity for all my created children in my spirit realms where I and my angels reside eternally. My spiritual kingdom is your true home my dear ones. This is where you were created and where you lived before coming to the earth plane.

Prior to your fall, you were created perfect and enjoyed much bliss and happiness in my heavens. Through the cunning and deceit of my first created spirit Satana, you were convinced to leave me your loving Heavenly Father Jesus. His plan was to conquer me and my angels and establish his own kingdom in my heavens. He thought that he could do this because he was seen and I was not, as I was invisible to all my created children. They could hear my voice but could not see me. In fact, I distributed my love emanations to all my created children in spirit through my first created child Satana, who thought that all the love, power and might that I channelled through him was his own.

I created countless children in spirit through Satana as I wanted him to enjoy immense bliss and joy from performing these tasks on my behalf. Instead of enjoying the countless bliss and happiness from creating on my behalf, he became stubborn, arrogant and full of pride. He began to think that all the power that I had given him, was his own. It was at this point that he began to hatch his cunning plan to conquer me and establish himself as king over all created children and my perfect angels throughout my heavens.

I attempted to warn Satana on many occasions that he was beginning to deviate from my established order. But he rejected my admonitions with his arrogant laugh. He even told me that it was futile for me to try and stop him because all my created children worshipped him as their creator because they could see him as I was invisible to them. This was the argument that he put to them to convince them to turn away from me. In his arrogance and self pride he began to believe that my power that had operated through him, was his very own. He became delusional and thought that he could conquer me, the source of everything that there is.

He managed to convince many of my children through his lies and deception that he was the creational source of everything that there is. He demanded that they should begin to worship him as their sole God and creator. He told my children who fell with him, that they could see him and the great creational light that emanated through him. He managed to convince them that he was the source of the creational power, not me, as I was invisible. With this argument, he managed to convince many of my children to no longer accept my love emanations that I directed through him. It was on this basis, this false basis and lies, that many of my children, about one third of my created children in my heavens, committed the sin of Apostacy by turning their backs on me by no longer accepting my love emanations that I directed through Satana.

As my adversary (which he now became), was also rejecting my love emanations, his soul, together with my other children that followed him became hardened and what was once spirit became matter.

Satana and my fallen children did not understand that to remain spirit, alive and active, they must constantly accept my love emanations for I am the source of all that there is. Without me and the love that I send to my created children, there is only death and judgement in the physical creations that you see about you.

My dear ones, I want you to understand that I do not wish any of my children to suffer. By creating the physical universe from the soul particles of Satana and the fallen children, was an act of mercy on my part. This was the only way in which I could guarantee the eventual return of all my children back to their home with me in my heavens.

The progress of my fallen children's soul particles through the various kingdoms ie. mineral through to animal then through to the pinnacle of my creations being man, is the only path to salvation for all my wayward children. Although it has taken eons of time to get to this stage, it will take many eons until each and every last child of mine has returned home. I have determined that the last child that will be allowed to return home to me in my heavens shall be Satana. He was my first created child, but due to the enormity of his transgressions, he shall be the last to return home. He is the True prodigal son that is referred to in the bible and I shall rejoice when that day comes as I will then know that I have completed and achieved my salvation plan for all my wayward children.

We will once again be one family with one shepherd, me, your loving Heavenly Father Jesus who loves all his children equally, who does not differentiate amongst them based upon the colour of their skin, race or religion. This is something my dear ones, who read these messages, that I would like you to understand and take to heart. I love you all equally and I concern myself with each and every one's progress. I do not wish to see you fall again, this is why I sometimes employ more drastic measures to assist my children to return back on the one true path that leads back to me in my heavens. These measures are necessary to prevent even more suffering to my wayward children if I were to place them under judgement again to begin the process of development through the various mineral, plant and animal kingdoms.

This is why I say to you my dear ones, that you should not be alarmed by the events that will shortly take place. They are in effect, and represent, my dispensing stronger medicine to assist those children on the earth plane that have lost their way. Without this somewhat stronger medicine, they would be in danger of being lost to my adversary forever.

For I have determined that I will shortly reap from the earth plane everything good that has been sown. The rest I shall leave to my adversary for the time being, to commence the long and arduous path of being placed under judgement again. To commence another development period banned in matter and under judgement. To commence the long path of salvation again through the various kingdoms: mineral, vegetable and animal where they shall once again become the crowning glory of my creations as either man or woman. They will once again have to live a short test life on this earth and choose me and eternal life or the adversary who brings death and destruction and judgement.

My dear ones, as I have stated in one of my earlier messages, I do not wish to scare you by the events that will shortly take place on the earth plane. All the events that will occur will be shown to you in advance by this loyal scribe. I want to assure you that each event is necessary to prevent even more suffering to mankind had they not taken place.

Tell your brothers and sisters about these events before they take place and tell them that the amount of time to turn back to me is short. Tell them that they should commence praying to me daily for my help and assistance to protect them from many of the hardships that will befall their brothers and sisters. Tell them that it is my will that these events take place to cleanse mankind of their pride, arrogance and selfishness. Tell them to start going out of their way to help their fellow brothers and sisters. It is only through love of me above all else, that they can attain redemption and eternal life in bliss with me in my heavens.

Go in peace my loved ones, to love me above all else and serve your brothers and sisters in love and humility.

Peace be with you – Amen.

My love and blessings I give to you my dear ones – Amen.
