

Tuesday, 4 March 2014

Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus, it is I who am here with you and is inspiring you to write and do my work to fulfil your mission here on the earth plane.

Tonight, I wish to teach my children who will read these messages about the causes of sin. My dear ones, many of you may have read in various writings through Jakob Lorber, Bertha Dudde, Gotfried Mayerhoffer and others about the consequences of sinning, but have you ever given any thoughts to the causes of sin? Sin, my dear ones can be caused in many ways. It can be caused through negative thoughts that may come to you from many sources. Many of my children think that all the thoughts they have are their own. No dear ones, they are not. Many of the negative thoughts that you receive are given to you from my erring fallen children in spirit, who for the moment, are influenced by Satana and follow him and his orders to try to influence you to commit sins through the various negative and evil thoughts that they place in your brains. Their aim is to influence you to carry out or action the evil thoughts that they place in your brains.

These fallen and evil spirits who do the work of Lucifer or Satana as he was known originally, wish to tempt you to commit sins. Their aim is to try to convince you or cause you to commit sins. They begin the process by placing small negative thoughts or ideas in your minds with the goal or hope that you will be fascinated in these thoughts or ideas. In this way, they know that they can foster or work on you developing a given weakness. What starts off as a dirty little fascinating thought soon develops into a passion or yearning to act on the negative thought. These evil, erring, fallen spirit children know your every thought. Nothing is hidden from their gaze when they look into you. At an instant they will know what all the weaknesses are of any given human being and how they can best exploit these weaknesses so that they can tempt you with placing an evil thought into your mind. In this way, they hope to cause you to commit sins ie. to action the evil or negative thoughts that they place in your mind.

My dear ones, not every thought is your own. The followers of Satana, my erring fallen children's sole aim is to cause you to commit sins. It is important to be aware and alert to the process that they follow so that you can protect yourselves from the temptations that they send your way. As I stated previously, the process that they follow is to introduce a minor negative thought into your brain or mind's with the aim that you will perceive such dirty little thoughts as being just that, minor and unimportant. Once they have got you thinking about such filthy or negative thoughts on an ongoing basis, they know that they have got you in their sights. If you feel that such thoughts are minor and not serious, they will step up their barrage on you with more serious thoughts. All with the aim to tempt you to action, to sin against your Heavenly Father and your fellow men and women. This is the escalation process that they follow to get human beings to commit sins. Now that you know how they cause my human children on this earth to commit sins ie. the causes of sin, I now ask you to be vigilant against the many evil ways that they attempt to exploit all your individual weaknesses. As I have taught you in the Lords Prayer, that I gave you when I walked among you on the earth plane, pray to me daily that I may protect you from all sin and temptation. I will assist and help you, to shield you from Satana and his evil brood, but you must pray to me and ask me for assistance daily to protect you and strengthen you from all temptations that the adversary and his followers send your way.

Some of you my dear ones, may well ask why do I permit Satana and his followers to tempt you in this way ? The answer to this question has its origin way back in human history when Satana convinced you my dear ones ie. not all of you on the earth plane but by far the majority, to turn away from me in my heavens and no longer accept the love emanations that I provided to them. They were not aware that my love emanations, my love light, is the source of all life and animation. By no longer accepting my love emanations, their spirits began to fall and harden into physical matter until the point where they were encased in physical matter, under judgement, in stone and rock throughout the physical universe which was created by me as an act of mercy as it was the only way that I could guarantee an eventual return of all my fallen children back to me in my heavens.

The sin of Apostacy, the true original sin of mankind whereby they were convinced by Satana or Lucifer to no longer receive my love emanations, is the reason that you are on the earth plane. Your individual particles from your spirit souls were encased in physical matter, in rock and stone and had to make the long journey back through the mineral kingdom, then the plant kingdom, then the animal kingdom and now back in the form of conscious human where you are given a short test life on this earth plane so that you can once again decide whether you choose death and judgement again by following Satana or Lucifer and his lies, or eternal life and bliss in my heavens eternally with me which is where you lived prior to your fall from grace in my heavens.

My dear ones, I hope you can see that I must not interfere with your free will. I permit you to be tempted by Satana or Lucifer as he is known in this more modern Era as I want you to make a choice. Life with me which is eternal or death and suffering through my adversary. You need to work hard in this short final test life to resist all temptations that the adversary and his followers sow into your minds with the negative thoughts that they place there. I allow this to happen, not to torment you but to get you to choose daily in your life which path you wish to follow. Your short test life is meant to teach you that sinning only causes you more suffering, pain and heartaches. By resisting temptations, by turning to me in prayer and asking for my help, I can assist you to overcome all the temptations and hardships in life so that you can earn eternal life in bliss and happiness with me in my heavens.

Please ponder and give some thought to the causes of sin that I have provided you within these pages. My adversary and his followers are very cunning and inventive in the manner that they attempt to convince you that it is OK or alright to sin. They will present it as though it is fashionable and cool for groups of people to sin together as their aim is to debase you my dear ones. Their goal is to reverse the order of your spiritual progression. They do not want humanity to love one another, to be kind to one another and share with one another. They encourage you to debase yourselves, to act like wild animals, to be selfish, unkind and uncaring. They wish you to hate your brothers and sisters and encourage mankind in the thoughts that they place into your minds to start all kinds of wars to further the pride and ego's of the rulers of nations who engaged in these wars.

My dear ones, all the things that I have described above are the consequences of sin. They only lead to more suffering, death and destruction. The adversary knows that I love you my dears above all else, this is why he is committed to depriving me of as many of my children as possible. His hatred of humanity is great because he knows that I love you all so very much. This is why, my dear ones, that I want you to be vigilant to the very cunning way that the adversary and his followers exploit your weaknesses. As I stated previously, they can read your mind in an instant, they can see every sin you committed previously and know what your weaknesses are. Nothing is hidden from their gaze. This is why my dear ones that I wish you to pray to me daily for protection and strength so that you do not succumb to the temptations that my adversary and his followers send into your minds in the form of negative thoughts that they hope you will act on.

I trust that the above explanation will arm you my dear ones against the temptations of the adversary and his followers. Please remember, not all the thoughts you have are your own. Turn to me for help when you have any negative thoughts and ask me to strengthen you and protect you against them. I will ensure that you will be protected so that you do not act on any of the thoughts that you are given.

My dear ones, I give you my love and blessings. Go in peace to serve and love and teach your brothers and sisters the things that I have taught you within these pages tonight. In this way, you will be assisting your brothers and sisters to overcome all temptations that come their way.

I love you all deeply, and I will not rest until each and every child of mine has come home where I await them – Amen.