Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you. Tonight, I wish to speak to you about the great love that I have for you my created children. In the beginning, when I created Lucifer my first created child and all the countless number of my children that followed, everything was perfect and in order according to my will as your Heavenly Father. I had instructed Satana or Lucifer as she is known in modern times, not to deviate from the perfect order that I had established. The creational power that I gave her came from me, as everything originates from me, the creational source. I warned Satana that she was to carefully control her behaviour. She was to be the model citizen, the example for all the children to be created as to what should be a kind and loving spirit that could teach its brothers and sisters that would follow her. She was even warned by me that there would be severe consequences if she deviated from my established order. I gave her the ability to create her brothers and sisters on my behalf. But, instead of listening to me and heeding my warnings, she decided to deviate from the path that I had given her. She became rude and arrogant when I began to give her warnings and admonitions that there would be consequences that would be severe if she did not freely choose to act according to my will rather than her own. She began to spread lies among my created children. She told them that she was God and that they should begin to worship her rather than me, your sole true and loving God Jesus who provided her with the love and light from my being to be able to create, in the first place, on my behalf.

You must understand my dear ones, that I could have easily created all my children on my own, however, out of my love for my first created child, I gave her the ability to create on my behalf so that she could enjoy increased love emanations that came from me. My aim was that she and you, all my dear ones, would receive ever increasing bliss and happiness from me each time you completed a task on my behalf.

You have no idea what profound happiness I can bring you when you perform tasks for me, out of love for me your Heavenly Father Jesus. The ever increasing bliss that you receive is limitless. This is what I had always intended for all of you, my dear ones and this is what I intended for Satana or Lucifer as she is now known.

She began to reject my love emanations. As she deviated from my order into the negative direction, she began to experience the emotions of pride. Over a period of time, this pride of hers developed into hatred and a desire to dominate. She wanted to dominate all my other created children initially. She began to spread poisonous lies amongst my other created children that I no longer loved them, that I had abandoned them and left her in charge while I was away. Yet I had not gone away, I was always there with them, it was just that I could not be seen as I was invisible to them. Satana began to instruct my children in spirit to ignore my voice, my warnings. In her self pride and arrogance and desire for domination, she began to tell them to start to worship her as their God. She told them that I was nothing other than a voice that they should ignore. She also told them that she could be seen. She pointed out to the fact that she was the light bearer. All of creation, all my created children could see the great light emanating through her. The light which I had provided to her constantly from my source, from myself, from my holy divine essence.

Through her lies and deceit, she convinced many of my created children to worship her as their God. She, through her lies had convinced them to stop accepting my love emanations. Her self love and arrogance had created all the negative attributes within her, that I had warned her about when I told her that if she deviated from my holy will, it would magnify all the negative polar attributes within her.

She ignored all my numerous warnings and admonitions about what would happen if she deviated from my perfect established order. Satana had thus fallen from my order. The more I attempted to warn her and request her to return to my established order, the more she rebelled. She became delusional in that she began to entertain the thoughts that she could capture me and subdue me. I ask you my dear ones, how could the finite ever even contemplate that they could conquer the infinite ? In any event, how could a child ever contemplate destroying its loving parent ? I am the source of everything that there is, nothing existed before me, nothing created by me could ever destroy me. But why would it ever even contemplate doing so ? The answer my dear ones is self pride or selfishness. She did not want my children worshipping me but only her. Her selfishness grew into arrogance and hatred for her Heavenly Father who only ever wanted her and all my created children to be loved by them. I only ever wanted and still want to make you eternally happy, to live with me in my heavens eternally with my perfect angels.

This, my dear ones, is how Satana or Lucifer as she is now known, became the prodigal son in the parable that I taught when I walked among you on the earth plane. Satana had not realised that by convincing approximately one third of all my created children to no longer accept my love emanations, that it would result in her fall and their fall. Through her wicked lies, she had convinced approximately one third of my children to commit the sin of Apostacy. This is the true original sin and not the false teaching of the churches regarding the eating of the forbidden fruit by adam and eve which occurred, although somewhat differently to how it is described in the bible at a later point in time.

I want you to understand my dear ones, that Satana is truly a queen of lies. She and her followers are aware of the great love that I have for you and the fact that I want you all, every last child of mine, to come back to me in my heavens. She has deceived, lied and cheated mankind throughout history. She only wishes to destroy you my dear ones, including this planet that I have designated as the planet where all my children will live their final, short, test life, where they will get to choose once more, eternal life with their Heavenly Father or death, destruction and judgement for the followers of Satana and her evil lies.

Forgive me, my dear ones, if I appear to be repeating myself in these messages through this scribe. I want you to know clearly that the adversary is very wicked and is employing every cruel trick that she has, to deceive you and send you on paths that take you away from me. This is why I ask all of you who read these messages, to pray to me your Heavenly Father daily for my protection from all the temptations that the adversary sends your way. It is only through my assistance and my love that you will be able to avoid the traps and pitfalls of the adversary. Think of me throughout each day and ask for my love and guidance in everything you do. I will not abandon you in your times of need, my dear ones. I will strengthen you for the onslaught of the adversary and her cohorts who seek to deceive you and lead you to death and destruction which is their aim, to deprive me of that which I love most, you my dear ones.

Pray to me daily to strengthen you with my love through the difficult times that are shortly to come to mankind. Your sincere prayers for your brothers and sisters can greatly reduce the impact and length of the events that are to come shortly to mankind. I love you my dear ones and I shall not rest until each and every last child of mine has returned safely back into my arms in my heavens to me, your loving Heavenly Father – Amen.

Go in peace my dear ones.
