

Friday, 11 April 2014

Good afternoon [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you. I have been with you since the moment that I created you, my beloved child. I am glad that you are now well enough to write for me again because I have a lot that I want to say to you and through you in these writings that will be spread to my other children throughout the world.

I want you all to know, my dear children, that my love for you all is immense. My love is like an all consuming fire that once it takes hold of you will never let you go. You are a part of me, my dear children and all I want is for you to all arrive back home in my spiritual kingdom safely. This is where you originated, and I want you back with me, your loving Heavenly Father from where you originated.

Today, I would like to speak about the events that will shortly take place on the earth plane. Easter will be coming soon, my dear ones. The time of the year that celebrates my resurrection from the dead. I gave my life for you, my dear ones, willingly, so that you may have eternal life with me again in my spiritual kingdom. By my giving my life for you, I demonstrated to you and to all of mankind the depth of my love for you. All you need to do in your life on earth is to choose me rather than my adversary. I consciously gave you your final test lives on this earth so that you could make this choice. I do not interfere with your freedom of choice, i.e. your free will. I want you to make the conscious choice of choosing me as your Father and your Saviour. I want you to love me above all else. I want your hearts to be full of love for me, your creator and father. I do not wish to force anyone to do anything contrary to their freedom of will. I want to be your one and only choice. If you only had an inkling of the great love I have for each and every one of you. Nothing is more important to me than you are, my children. My love for you is eternal. The universe and all its creations will pass in time, but my love for you will remain. Such is the depth and feeling of my love for you, my dear ones.

The celebration of my sacrifice and resurrection at Easter is the whole point of my coming to the earth plane to live among you, my dear ones. It represents the greatest thing that a parent can offer to his children, to give his life so that they can live. The sacrifice of my life for you, my children, enabled me to pay the price for the sin of apostacy when my adversary, the father of lies, convinced many of you to turn away from me and stop receiving my love-emanations. Had the adversary not done this, we would all still be living in my heavens in absolute bliss. I would not have had to create the physical universe for the spirit of the adversary and the spirits of my children who were tricked into following him. I would also not have had to come to the earth plane and sacrifice myself so that you all could live once again with me, your father, in my heavens. This, my dear ones is the background as to why I had to come to the earth plane. I had to die so that you could have eternal life once again.

Such is the depth of my love for you. This Easter, I would like you to carefully think about what I have just written here through this scribe. I want you to contemplate the love I have for you. I want you to contemplate the great suffering that I had to endure, from the moment of my arrest in the garden of Gethsemane to the moment that I gave my physical life for you on Calvary. I want you to think about the suffering and humiliation that I willingly endured at the hands of the Pharisees (i.e. Jewish priests) and the Roman soldiers on my way to Calvary. This suffering, I gladly took on to cancel your sins of Apostacy, when you turned your backs on me in my heavens, when the father of lies convinced you to stop receiving my love-emanations, which sustains everything in the physical universe as well as in my spiritual kingdom. I paid the price, my dear ones, for your great sin of Apostacy.

Think of me throughout Easter, my dear ones, and think about how much I love you, to have consented to putting myself through so much suffering so that you could be given this final, relatively short, test life on earth, so that you could be given the choice one final time, i.e. to choose to love me and receive eternal happiness and joy in my heavens or the adversary, and receive death and destruction.

My dear ones, I want you to think of me as often as you can throughout the day. Please do not forget to ask me for love and protection, daily, so that I may protect you from the adversary and his evil brood that does his bidding.

The earth is now passing into the "End Times," as they are referred to in the Book of Revelation. The adversary and his followers are aware that their time is limited. This is why they are very aggressive in their attempts to influence all my children on the earth plane. By asking for my love, guidance and protection, daily, I will protect you from the negativity and difficulties that the world will shortly face. Your prayers and love that you send to the world and your brothers and sisters can greatly shorten the length and severity of the challenges that will come. This is why I say to you, my dear ones, pray, pray, pray. Pray to me daily so that I may exercise my mercy, that divine attribute of mine to shorten these end times before my return to the earth plane, which will be the beginning of a new golden age on the earth plane where there will be only one shepherd, I your Heavenly Father Jesus and there will be one flock, i.e. all of you, my beloved children.

Always remember, my dear ones, pray, pray, pray, so that I may shorten the length and severity of the difficult times that are shortly to come to the earth plane.

I love you, my dear ones, go in peace.

Amen.
