Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you on this Good Friday evening, the evening that I gave my life for all of you, my dear children.

Tonight, my dear ones, I wish to speak to you about Faith. The extent to which you entrust everything that happens in your lives to me, your loving Heavenly Father Jesus. I wish you all to trust me with everything in your lives. I want you to turn to me with all your difficulties and worries in your life. I want you to communicate with me daily, often. As your parent I wish you to talk to me. Tell me about your worries, tell me what is happening in your life. Tell me about the different things that concern you. It is not as if I do not already know everything that is happening in your life, as I do. I know every thought that you have had as well as every thought that you will have in the future. But what I want from you, my dear children, is to build our relationship together, you as my child who is learning and developing in this world and me as your parent, even though I know everything that there ever was in the past and can see everything that will occur in the future. I nonetheless would like to develop our relationship together, while you are on the earth plane.

Every parent wishes to speak with their children. This is why, my dear ones, I would very much like it if you would speak with me daily. In this way we can work on developing our relationship together. In the morning when you wake up, pray to me and ask me to bless and protect you throughout the day. In this way, you will be beginning your day with me in mind. In this way, you will dedicate every new day to me, your loving Heavenly Father Jesus. In this way, you will be inviting me to walk every step with you throughout your day. If you are unsure about anything in your life, please ask me for help. Tell me about your problems and what you need help with. In this way, you are inviting me into your daily lives so that I, as your parent, can watch over you and provide you with guidance and inspiration in your daily lives.

I want you to think of me constantly, my dear ones. I want to be your first thought of the day and I want to be your last thought throughout the day. Speak to me throughout the day as well. I want you to actively involve me in everything that you do. By thinking of me throughout the day, you are building our relationship, but you are also building what is called "Christ Consciousness." This is a state of being where your thoughts and mine become one, so to speak. By developing our relationship in this way, you will become aware of my presence with you at all times. Sometimes this will involve you feeling my love in the form of warmth that comes next to you. At other times you will feel me in your heart as either a warmth or a twinge of your heart muscle; for a piece of my divine spirit resides or lives in each human being's heart. This is why my dear ones, you are told to go within yourselves, to find me your loving Heavenly Father.

I created you and all other children of mine in the universe from myself. You are a part of me, my dear ones. My divine Holy Spirit was placed by me into each and every child's heart. As everything that you see with your physical eyes originated from me, so also everything will return back to me one day, when it has been perfected. Yet the path of perfection must start here on the earth plane with you striving to develop your own "Christ Consciousness."

I want to be involved in everything that you do. So therefore, I am asking you to not be afraid to address me personally, often, throughout the day. I really want you to develop a loving relationship with me, which starts with our communication. Too many of my children have been taught that they should not communicate with me, unless it is for really important things. This, my dear ones, is not true. What sort of parent only wants to speak with their children about really important things only? I am telling you, my dear ones, that every loving parent wants to know everything about their children. They want to discuss everything in their lives, not just about the so called important things.

It is important that this misconception about telling me about only important things or only addressing me or asking me for only important things be cleared up once and for all. I cannot express myself more clearly and more simply than by saying to all my children who read these messages that I want to know about everything that occurs in your lives. Speak to me about the little things in life and about the big things. As your loving parent, I want to be involved in every facet of your life if you will let me. This is why I say to you all, my dear ones, address me simply by saying, "beloved Father, I need help with this today", "beloved Father, I need your guidance with this problem that I have today." It matters not whether the help you need is a little thing or a large thing.

I am here for you always, what is most important is that we develop our relationship together: me, as your loving Heavenly Father Jesus, and you as my created being, my created child. Nothing pleases me more than my children who express their love for me from their hearts. The only way in which we can develop our relationship is if you communicate with me, daily, throughout your day, constantly. If you think of me and ask me from your heart for my love and guidance to direct you through your life, it will enable me to either place you on the correct path, or to keep you there. By asking for my love, for my guidance and for my protection, it will enable me to keep you on the shortest, most direct path back to me in my heavens from where you all originated.

I trust that this message that I provided through this scribe was sufficiently clear that I want you to develop your direct relationship with me personally. You will find that as a loving father I will always find a way to assist you with whatever difficulty comes your way. I can only help you if you turn to me with all your troubles and worries and ask me to help you and lead you in your daily lives. Think of me as often as you can. Develop your relationship with me in such a way that you involve me in all your daily activities. I am here waiting to be called, my dear ones. Ask me to enter your lives, communicate as often as you can and within a very short period of time, you will develop your "Christ Consciousness." You will become aware of my presence with you at times, and I will be able to communicate with you and watch over you and care for you, and guide you in the manner that every loving parent cares for those who he loves above all else, his beloved children.

My dear ones, if you haven't done so already, ask me to come into your lives. Ask me to walk every step of the way in your journey here on the earth plane. Ask me to protect you and shield you from all the negativity in this world.

My love for you, my dear children, is far greater than you can ever imagine. All I need from you, my dear ones, is to be allowed to come into your life so that we can get to know one another better, so that we develop our relationship together directly. Never be afraid to tell me about everything that is happening in your life. I want to know all the details no matter how small.

I look forward to you addressing me directly, my dear ones, every day. At the end of your day, before you go to bed, simply tell me what was good in your day, what was not good in your day and what you need help with. In this way I will be a part of your life every day, as a loving father who wants to be actively involved in his children's lives every day of their life here on the earth plane and eternally in my spiritual kingdom, i.e. my heavens.

Go in peace, my dear ones. I look forward to you asking me to come into your lives, communicating with me directly, and building a loving relationship with me directly. In return, I promise that I will love you, guide you and protect you and lead you directly and personally back to my heavens in my loving arms, where I await you – Amen.
