Good evening [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you my [scribe]. Tonight, I wish to speak to you about my holy spirit and the great love that I have for mankind. You are all my children and as such you deserve to know about your true parent me, your loving Heavenly Father Jesus. You all need to know that in my very essence or very centre lies my holy spirit. Yet the nature of my holy spirit is something that very few of my children know of or are aware of. I, in my essence or in my centre, am love sublime. I am the purest spirit filled with love. I contain a love force that you cannot possibly imagine. A love that is so strong that it draws and attracts all to my heart, in the centre of my being all who love me with a force that is stronger than any human being can imagine or has ever seen. The power of my love through my holy spirit is like an all consuming fire that cleans and perfects everything that it comes in contact with. This love of mine draws everything to it as everything in the universe had its original source from it. It is true that my love throughout the universe animates everything in my sublime divine order. The power that comes from my love, from my holy spirit maintains everything. Maintains all the cycles in nature, maintains all the galaxies including all the suns and planets within them. My holy spirit pervades everything that there is. Every atom at its centre has a piece of my holy spirit. Everything that exists in the physical universe as well as everything that exists in my spiritual kingdom have my holy spirit in the centre of everything that there is.

Your scientists are starting to bridge the gap between the physical universe and the spiritual kingdom. At this point in time they refer to the intelligence that orders the universe as "dark matter". This dark matter they say, has an intelligence. Indeed it has my dear ones, as it is my intelligence that they are referring to. It is my holy will that I express through my love energy in the centre of my heart that I send out throughout the universe. It is me my dear ones that directs everything that is seen and unseen.

The scientists on earth are getting closer to bridging the gap between the physical and spiritual but they are not quite there yet. Some of them have made the link and have stated that this intelligence is in fact me their loving creator, but the vast majority have not. I will shortly inspire some scientists to make a discovery that will provide them with the much needed key to link the physical creations with the spiritual. It is time that mankind's ignorance about such matters ceases as mankind moves to the new age whereby they will be very much aware of the true connection between the physical and the spiritual creations.

Your scientists are undertaking many new experiments in places such as Cern in Switzerland as well as in other underground locations in Vienna Austria and other places. The results from those particle accelerator experiments are helping the scientists to come to new conclusions regarding the nature of the physical universe as well as the spiritual kingdom that surrounds them. I will inspire some of the scientists to make new discoveries in my direction. I will inspire them and lead them to find the link or key that unlocks the door between the physical universe and my spiritual kingdom. This will lead to other discoveries in time, that will provide scientists with their much needed proof that it is truly I, your loving creator, that lovingly directs the destiny of everything that exists in the physical universe as well as in my spiritual kingdom.

Mankind of the future will no longer be groping in the dark thinking that all that exists is only what he can touch, feel, sense and smell. Mankind will be aware of their origin as spirits from my loving heart. They will be aware of their sin of apostasy as being the cause for the physical creations being created by myself and they will be aware that they are on their journey back to my heart in my heavens from where they originated. They will know that in order to progress beyond this physical existence, they must love me above all else and must love and unselfishly assist their brothers and sisters on their collective road of salvation.

A time will come when mankind will clearly know the existence of the spiritual kingdom and their links to their guardian, their spirit guides and teachers and the many loved ones in spirit with whom they will be communicating with to spire them, to teach them and assist them on their individual paths to perfection. This must be so, because I will it to be so.

Mankind must progress and mature their souls. Every creation is linked, all must progress forward to become spiritualised once again. All my erring children will at this point have had many lifetimes to mature their souls, to learn their life lessons from many experiences in many lifetimes. They would have learnt many things along the way. Some of my more erring children who are stubborn, would have had to suffer much before their hearts softened enough to let me their loving heavenly father, back into their lives.

Some of my really stubborn erroneous children would have had to endure living through numerous development cycles whereby their soul particles were banned once again within some distant planet to wait eons and eons of years until they passed through the mineral, plant and animal kingdoms again before being given another short test life on earth to earn the prize of eternal life in bliss with me in my heavens. Such is the journey of all souls who committed the sin of Apostasy by falling for the lies of Lucifer, the serpent of old. But once the whole of physical creation is spiritualised and every last soul has come back home, he too, that old serpent will come back to his loving father and seek his forgiveness. He too, will be forgiven. My prodigal son will be home and we will once again be one spiritual family full of love and compassion who will live eternally in my heavens actively creating on my behalf. My children will know a happiness and sublime bliss that is never ending in intensity as we rise from one level ever higher to another eternally.

The prize my dear ones is great. You cannot imagine in your wildest dreams what awaits you in my heavens. I know that you must suffer a lot while you are on the earth plane. Had the majority of mankind not committed the sin of Apostasy, you would all still be with me in my heavens being in eternal bliss and having a very high degree of knowledge and understanding, as I created you. After mankind's fall, the knowledge and bliss were taken away from them. Your paths of living various lives are a process whereby you learn from life's experiences on your journey toward perfection, back to a loving and knowledgeable state to when I created you.

Your time on the earth plane is short but this is your final short test life as you have lived other lives, mostly on other planets. Your life on earth is a precious gift. Many souls are lined up waiting for their turn to come to earth. They are aware that this planet which is located in the left toe of the great cosmic man (yes, the shape of the universe is in the shape of the first fallen Lucifer), is a special planet. There is no other way to become a child of God ie. a citizen of the heavenly father's heavens until you come to earth and live your final short test life.

Live your life well, don't waste it. Live simply, love me above all else and be loving and kind and gentle to your brothers and sisters. Make the most of this final test life so that when the time comes that I recall you home, you have properly prepared yourself. Ensure that your kind loving deeds outweigh your unkind and uncaring selfish deeds. Be aware that all your thoughts, words and actions are recorded in your soul (ie. your subconscious). Be firm with the thoughts that come to your mind as many of the thoughts are placed there by the adversary to tempt you. Try and strive to have only loving and kind thoughts, do only good deeds and unselfishly do good deeds for your brothers and sisters. This is the TRUE way to mature your souls while you are on the path. This will prepare you to enter into your father's house when you cross the threshold from the physical world to the spiritual world, where I and my spirit children await you to continue your path to perfection in loving service of your brothers and sisters according to the example that I showed you when I walked among you.

Your journey does not stop when you come to my spiritual kingdom/ spheres. You will continue to learn and develop eternally. Some of you will preach my gospels and teachings to others in my spiritual spheres who did not prepare themselves during their physical lives. Others will become guardians and guides or teachers for my other children living on the earth plane. Other children will choose to return back to earth as teachers of my gospels or as scribes in my physical vineyard. Other children will go back to the earth plane as helpers of the poor and needy as a way to serve mankind. For others that did not do loving deeds on the earth plane, they will need to return to another planet or earth to perform selfless loving deeds to make up for their own personal karma for bad deeds committed in the past. Yet again, others choose a life of suffering on earth to pay the karmic debt of others. Some people that you see with disabilities are such super heroes from the spiritual realm.

There is a cause and effect for everything my dear ones. Please ensure that you are strict with your thoughts and ensure that you live a life of loving service for others through your loving deeds.

Your loving father sees all and is aware of everything that occurs simultaneously throughout the whole universe. Such is my omnipotent nature. My sole aim is to have all of you, my dear ones, back in my heavens from where you originated.

Learn to live with your hearts rather than your intellectual minds. If you do not know what I mean by this, turn to me in loving prayer and I will lay the answer in your hearts. You will feel my love move gently in your heart giving you the love, peace and serenity you require. Ask me to fill your hearts with my love every day and you will soon understand what I mean when I request you to live with your loving heart rather than your intellectual mind. I will transform your life in ways that you will never have imagined. All you need to do is ask me your loving heavenly father Jesus to come into your heart and fill it with my love. After all my dear one's, a piece of my spirit spark resides in your hearts. All you need to do is to ask me to fill your heart with my love daily and we will soon ignite that spirit spark whereby you and I will unite permanently in a bond that will last for eternity. Such is my love for you my dear ones. Such is my all embracing love that is like a consuming fire that perfects all that it comes into contact with. This is what I meant earlier when I said that my love in its essence, in my heart centre has a power that no child of mine on the earth plane can ever possibly imagine. I want to share this love with you and all my children. All you need to do my dear ones is ask me, your loving heavenly father Jesus to fill your hearts with my love every day and I will give you the peace, contentment and happiness in your life so that you can live in your heart space and share the love that I give to you with your brothers and sisters in these end times and then eternally in my heavens – Amen.
