Good evening my scribe,

This is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you my [scribe], guiding your pen to write the words of love that I bring to my children on the earth plane. The words that I bring you, are not only for this current generation of my children on the earth plane but are for many, many future generations that will read these messages to receive my love and guidance in those future generations. These words shall inspire many more souls to turn back to me. This is my will and my words, my love and guidance that I now bring through this scribe. It will have just as much relevance for those future generations who will read these messages of love and take inspiration from these words to live their life according to my teachings in humility, love and patience to prepare themselves for eternal life in my heavens.

My dear ones, tonight I want to speak more about the events that will shortly take place on the earth plane. As I have stated in some of my previous messages, these events will take the world by surprise. The first of these events being the nuclear weapon that Israel will detonate on Syria will take place soon. This is why I have requested this scribe to place these messages onto the internet as soon as possible so that my children of this world can be forewarned of this first end time event as I foretold in the Book of Revelation. By placing these messages on the internet, this scribe will enable my children on earth to understand that it is truly me, your loving Heavenly Father Jesus that is providing these messages to his children on earth to forewarn them of the end time events to come so they can teach their brothers and sisters that there is not much time before my second coming.

I am a loving God who is appealing to his children to turn back to me, their loving father who only wants his children to love him. This is a message that I wish all my children that read these messages to spread far and wide among everyone that they know and meet. This world and the way it currently works and is governed will not last forever. Changes need to be made to the surface of the planet and in the hearts of men and women that occupy this planet.

The negativity of this world has almost reached its Zenith. The adversary and his followers know that the amount of time left to win over more souls to bring to hell is extremely short now. I know that I have stated this in previous messages, but this is indeed true. All the events that this scribe will loyally write down and publish on the internet are given by me to you my dear children to let you know that I have not forsaken you. I will not give up on not even one of my children where I know that they might choose me their loving father over my adversary who only seeks to bring destruction and misery to mankind because he knows that I love you my dear children the most, so he, through his hatred of what I love the most, seeks to deprive me of my children.

The end time events my dear ones, will not by some long drawn out process. I do not want my children to suffer any longer due to the influence of the adversary, the old serpent who has deceived mankind for close to two millennia since I walked on the earth plane. He is preparing his forces now for a final showdown with me. He and his followers will increasingly influence my children on the earth plane to do aggressive and barbaric acts that are totally out of character of many of my children. This will be one of the signs that you should look out for in your lives as this is a sign that we are now formally within the end time period. Be on the lookout for such signs in the people that you share your life with. Everything that previously appeared normal to you will take on different characteristics. People's behaviour will change, their moods will change and many of their actions will appear as being totally out of character. These are signs that the adversary and his followers are aggressively influencing mankind in the evil thoughts that they place in my children's minds. They know that their time is very short now and they are now more openly aggressive trying to do as much damage as they can to mankind before their day of judgement comes, when there will be a showdown to speak between me and my forces and the adversary and his minions.

The adversary knows that he has already lost this final battle but is striving to steal as many souls as he can before I call an end to this current development period whereby souls that have chosen the path of love towards me, will win love and eternal bliss and happiness and those souls that have chosen the adversary and hatred will have to start the long journey to perfection again whereby I will bind their soul particles into distant planets in the far reaches of the universe where it will take eons and eons and eons of years again before their soul particles will have to pass through the mineral, plant and animal kingdoms before becoming human again on some distant planet. Initially, to begin the process of maturing their soul again to then have to come to my special planet Earth once again to live another final test life on Earth where they will have to choose once again whether they wish eternal life in bliss with me in my heavens or to choose the adversary who only brings death and destruction and suffering to my erring children.

My dear ones, this is the process of my Plan of Salvation. I have certain set development periods in which only I know the day and hour in which one development period ends and another development period begins. This is what is at stake my dear ones. All that my children need to do in the difficult times that will be shortly upon you, is to pray in your heart for me to spare you, for me to protect you.

The time will come shortly when I must reap what was in the fields. I must put the good harvest in my barn in my heavens and allow the adversary his prize being the souls of my children who choose him. I will give my children who choose me untold happiness and bliss and my adversary, the arch deceiver, will only bring death and destruction to those children that followed him as they will lose their consciousness, their physical bodies will be destroyed and their soul particles will be turned into stone and will be placed deep into planets on the far side of the universe. The more wicked the soul, the deeper within the planet will be placed their soul particles and the longer period of time it will take before they eventually become human again by having to start on the long road of redemption from the beginning again.

This is what is at stake my dear ones. As the difficult times present themselves shortly, pray to me for world peace as I have stated in my previous messages. Pray for your brothers and sisters whom you see in hardship and extend a loving and helping hand to your brothers and sisters wherever you can. In this way, you will be radiating out my love from your hearts on the earth plane. You by helping your brothers and sisters and by telling them to pray to me their one and only true God in these difficult times will ensure that you are doing your part in assisting me in my Plan of Salvation to bring home as many of your brothers and sisters at the end of this current development period.

Go in peace my dear ones. I will personally protect each one of you and your families in these difficult times ahead for humanity which will lead to a new planet earth that will be free of the adversary and his evil cohorts or followers. It will be a planet where there shall only be love, not hate. It shall be a planet where I will live among my children teaching them and properly preparing them during this final short test life for eternal life with me in my heavens from where we all originated.

I will rebuild the face of the planet to undo the harm that the adversary has done by influencing mankind to pollute the planet and damage the delicate balance of its ecology. The planet will be like new again. For future generations of my children that will live on the face of planet Earth, this planet will be like a new planet again, it will be like another Eden with beauty and an array of animal and plant life that this planet has never experienced in the past. Such will be the wonders that my children who will live in future generations on Earth shall experience while living on the earth plane. I am a loving God to whom anything is possible. I will rebuild this planet following the great changes that will take place with the re-alignment of the tectonic plates.

For my children that choose me, I will take them away from the surface of the planet when I make these changes. They should have nothing to fear. I will bring them back to the surface of the planet unhurt so that they may commence life as the first generation that lives on the earth plane of the newly regenerated planet. This is the rapture event that some of your biblical scholars in the past have spoken and written about. I will then live visibly among all my children on the earth plane to guide them and teach them during their earth lives.

My children on the newly regenerated earth will be free of the adversary and his followers as I will chain him and his followers in the centre of the earth where they will not be able to influence my children on Earth for a very, very, long time. A time will come when they too will be given a chance to commence on their road of development back to me in my house. If they agree, they will commence the path of progressing through the mineral, vegetable and animal kingdoms back up until they become man or woman again. If they do not choose to return to me, their soul particles will be placed into the most distant planet in the core to await one final development period. After all my other children whose soul particles await redemption in all the other planets and suns throughout the universe, have lived their final test lives on Earth and have returned back home to me in my heavens after choosing me, rather than my adversary, who through his lies and deceptions only brought more death and destruction for my fallen children who had to recommence the long road of salvation through countless development periods due to the lies and deception that the fork tongued serpent brought to them.

This is the TRUE background as to why you are here on the earth plane my dear ones. I cannot interfere in your freedom of choice and this is why I allow my adversary to tempt you in this short test life because I want you to choose me of your own free will. I do not want to force you to do anything contrary to your own free will.

As the time is now short before the end of this current development period, I want you to know the TRUTH about why you are here and where humanity is at, in these end times.

Do not fear anything about what is written in these pages my dear ones. I am a loving God and will personally protect all my children who turn to me and ask for my protection. The events referred to in the Book of Revelation must occur as they were foretold, but you must know that I will personally protect all my sheep as I am your loving good shepherd who loves you eternally – AMEN.
