Good afternoon my scribe,

This is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you my [scribe], giving you these words of love and guidance that you and humanity need in these end times.

Today, I would like to remind my scribe, and you my dear children, not to worry. Do not concern yourselves with the end time events that are about to commence. I have taken care of everything that will occur shortly. No harm will come to you or your families my dear ones. I will ensure that those of my children on the earth plane who need to learn humility through these events are placed in situations where they will come to understand that their human lives are very short and can be taken away from them at a moments notice. This will then trigger within them a contemplation regarding what really matters in their lives, so that they can come to the conclusion that I am their one and only Lord and God. They will then, after hitting rock bottom in their lives turn to me their Heavenly Father Jesus and request my help in the dangerous circumstances that they find themselves in. This is the only way that they can learn to break free of this world and its wicked spirit Satan or Satana as he was known in times gone by ie. in the distant past.

These events are designed for them, my dear ones, rather than your good selves who strive to form your relationship with me on the earth plane and who love me above all else and love your fellow human beings like you love yourselves, through the good deeds that you strive to do each day. You, my dear ones, who are already trying to do good deeds every day in your lives, represent the ninety nine good sheep that I was referring to in one of my last messages.

These end time events were designed by me to reclaim that one lost sheep who is still in darkness, in the wilderness, who is at the mercy of my adversary and his followers who represent the wolves that seek to destroy mankind.

The events that will shortly commence in these end times, represent my divine mercy in attempting to bring back that one sheep back to my fold. This one sheep represents all my children on the earth plane at the moment who are lost, who are gross selfish materialists that have cold hearts who in their arrogance are prepared to further their own selfish interests at any cost without caring at all for their brothers and sisters, let alone consider their Heavenly Father who loves them above all else. These end time events are meant for these children, my dear ones, not you who already dearly love their Heavenly Father Jesus and their brothers and sisters.

It may appear to you that some of these end time events are quite shocking, and indeed, they will be. Some of the events will be very alarming and will create a lot of devastation. But this is the extent to which I must go to shock and alarm my wayward children, (not you who love me, my dear ones), into considering their mortality. Into coming to an understanding that they are not permanent residents on the earth plane. Into coming to rock bottom in their life where they will realise that everything they have been striving for, their wealth, their fame, their power and control are an illusion. That all these things can be taken away from them at a moments notice. Indeed, my dear ones, I have arranged matters in such a way that all the possessions, money, wealth and assumed power of these lost sheep, will be taken away from them in these end time events. Once they have lost all these illusory possessions that they treasure so much, once they have lost everything that they treasure with their material focussed hearts, they will finally hit rock bottom. Once they have reached rock bottom they will then be free of the illusion that my adversary has created for them. They will then truly begin to be thankful for being alive and will then turn to me and ask for my help.

This, my dear ones, may sound like a drastic way to get the attention of my children who are presently on the wrong path, yet this is what must be done to save those children from being lost eternally to my adversary who has a stronghold on their hearts through his false promises that they too can become Gods and live forever on this earth plane. Such is the stronghold that the adversary currently has over these poor deceived children of mine who have not yet found me, their loving creator, who only wants to spare them from the adversary and his followers. Through suffering and hardship these lost sheep will be able to learn the lessons that they need to, to return back on the right path to their loving Heavenly Father Jesus. Amen.
