

Saturday, 16 August 2014

Dear [scribe], it is Truly I your Heavenly Father Jesus that is with you my son. It is me speaking through your heart where I reside as my primordial spirit spark in your heart and in all your brothers and sisters hearts. You have found me [my scribe], in your heart as you sought to find me. You were seeking me your beloved creator and I allowed myself to be found by you as your heart was true and you were genuinely seeking to find your beloved creator. And it is true that all my children who seek me with a loving heart will also find me. I will slowly show myself to each and every child of mine who seeks me.

I am a loving God who only wants what is best for my children. As we get to know each other better, you my dear ones, by observing my creations and the many wonders that surround you in nature, and me through the loving relationship that we form as you communicate with me daily about all your problems, what you need help with, as well as the many things that you tell me about that please you in your life. This process of building our relationship through daily communications will enable us to get closer. Me as your loving creator, God and parent, and you as my loving child. As we continue to build our relationship, so too will the love that we share. You my dear ones, express your love for me in your prayers and the daily conversations that you have with me. I, in turn, will send you increased love emanations from my heart centre which will enable you to ignite the spirit spark that resides in your hearts. This spirit spark my dear ones, is a piece of my divine spirit that I have placed in each and every one of my children's hearts.

Once this spirit spark has ignited my dear ones, you will begin to feel my presence in your hearts. Some of you will be able to feel my presence in your hearts, some of you will be able to hear my voice in your hearts. This voice has always been there my dear ones, but many of you have not been able to realise it. This voice is your conscience. Yes, my dear ones, your conscience has always been me speaking to you from my spirit spark that I have placed in your hearts.

As our relationship grows and as your love for me, your Heavenly Father Jesus becomes stronger and stronger, the second flame of my spirit spark in your hearts will ignite. At this stage, my dear ones, you and I will become more as one. Your temple, your physical body, is now ready for us to become as one. You will feel at this stage that you will want to be more and more in loving service of me, your Heavenly Father and to your brothers and sisters on the earth plane. This is what I always intended for all of you my dear children, for us to get to know one another personally, for us to share your life daily, all the good things that occur in your life as well as all the hardships or challenges that you face.

I am a loving God who in my own heart centre is the purest possible Love that is like an all consuming love fire, that gently and lovingly perfects all that it comes into contact with. And yet, this is what I intended for all my fallen children that are on the earth plane. Your earth life is meant to be an opportunity for us to get to know one another better. You my dear child are meant to learn through your life experiences to grow in love and wisdom and serve your brothers and sisters in loving humility according to the example that I provided to you on the earth plane. In addition to this, we are meant to find each other on the earth plane so that you can get to know me, your loving creator and develop your love for me. In this way, you can live a life of loving me, your creator, above all else and love and serve your brothers and sisters like yourselves. In this way, you will live a life of love which will mature your souls and bring you closer and closer towards perfection. Towards being the loving image of your creator, the Heavenly Father Jesus by imitating me and the example I showed you whilst on the earth plane.

This is the purpose of your lives, my giving you freedom of choice, to learn to love me above all else and love your brothers and sisters like yourselves, so that you can return to my heavens after being perfected through the various experiences and lives that you have lived along your path of perfection in returning back to me from where you once originated. This my dear ones, is the reason for your earthly life.

You have the choice to choose a loving path in life or a path of hatred, evil and deceit. The choice is truly yours. A loving path leads you to perfection and back to me, and the alternative path leads to much suffering and possible renewed banishment in matter to begin the process of development again after many, many eons where the fallen child will once again be given a final test life on earth in another development period where they will get to choose again between me, your loving creator or the adversary, the king of lies, who only brings pain, suffering and destruction to my children that follow him. He is truly the cause for why many of my children had fallen from my heavens many, many eons ago when he convinced them to turn their backs on me and commit the sin of Apostacy. Had the adversary and one third of my created children not committed this great sin caused by the adversary's lies, you would all still be in my heavens with me in total bliss and happiness and you would not have to go through this process of perfecting yourselves, by learning from life to life, then having to come to the earth plane to live one final test life where I give you the opportunity to choose me over the adversary.

I want my children to love me as much as I love them. My love sustains the whole universe and every creature within it. All you need to do in these End Times, my dear ones is to LOVE, LOVE, LOVE. Pray to me daily my dear ones, speak with me as if I were there with you my dear ones and ask me to lead you and inspire you in your daily lives. In this way, you and I will become united even while you are on the earth plane. And you would have matured your soul through a life of love for me above all else and performing loving and caring deeds for your brothers and sisters, as well as supporting them in any way that you can.

This is the way that I always intended my earth children to prepare themselves during their final test lives on earth before returning back to my spiritual kingdom where they, through further loving service for me, their loving Heavenly Father Jesus perfect themselves further until the point where their souls and my spirit can be reborn in spirit and become one with me their loving Heavenly Father Jesus. This my dear ones is the journey that you are all on.

The adversary is the cause for many of my childrens fall from my heavens and he and his followers are battling with me still to win over as many of my fallen children to himself who are living their final test lives on earth. You must resist all his charms and the illusions that he gives my children regarding living a life of pleasure, obtaining as many worldly riches as one can and pleasing only oneself. This form of selfishness where one's sole focus is on oneself and not on one's neighbour, is contrary to my teachings of neighbourly love and loving service and humility. Materiality, selfishness, anger, pride and envy all lead to unhappiness and much suffering, my dear ones. This is why I must repeat, time and again that you must resist this world and its temptations as they are an illusion that only lead to one's own personal suffering.

Pray to me, my dear ones for my strength to fill you with my love emanations so that you may resist the adversary and all his worldly temptations. The prize of eternal bliss and happiness is at stake here. In order to win this great prize, I allow the adversary to tempt you so that you can prove in this final test life by your loving words and loving deeds that you do truly choose me this time and not my adversary, who through his lies many, many, eons ago was the cause for so many of my children falling from my heavens and having to start again like infant children on the long path of perfection due to their sins of Apostacy, so many eons ago. Amen.