Dear [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you my dear son. It is true that the adversary is creating a great deal of havoc on the earth plane at the moment, yet I cannot "clip his wings" [ie. restrict his activities] as you have repeatedly asked me to do in your prayers. The reason for this my son is that I would be interfering with my inviolable law of freedom of choice. My children on the earth plane need to be free to make choices in their lives. Free to choose myself your loving Heavenly Father Jesus or free to choose the adversary if that is what they wish. They also need to be free to make their own mistakes so that they can learn from them. If I were suddenly to "clip the wings" as you say, of the adversary, to stop or curtail his activities, my children on the earth plane would not be able to learn and progress. After all, this is why my fallen children as well as my other children who are teachers like you my son, would not be able to learn and progress as rapidly as you are able to currently on the earth plane. He serves a valuable purpose my son, without him my fallen children would not have the temptations which their souls require to mature. This is the reason why I cannot curtail his activities as by doing or acting contrary to my holy will, he feels that he is hurting me. He cannot see that the more aggressive he and his cohorts act in these end times, they are actually serving my purposes in bringing more souls home to me, their loving Heavenly Father Jesus. This is happening all around the world at the moment.

Many of my children are beginning to wake up from their spiritual slumber. This is happening through the increased love emanations that I am sending throughout the universe from my central sun Regulus. These increased love emanations are permeating physical matter everywhere throughout the universe. The effect that this is having on earth is that many people all around earth are beginning to wake up. They are beginning to question their existence and are starting to ask why they are here on earth, are examining what is important to them and what is not. They are looking at the quality of their relationships with their family and everyone around them. Many are now choosing to go in completely new directions in their lives for the first time. They are now also examining their consciences which is truly me speaking to them through my spirit spark that I have placed in all my children's hearts on the earth plane. Those that were previously gross materialists are beginning to question the value or importance of money in their lives. For the first time in many of my children's hearts, they are turning away from the world and its false illusion of money, wealth and power which my adversary has used successfully up until now to chain and imprison them. People are now beginning to search for meaning in their lives, have begun the search for me their beloved creator Jesus Christ and they are finding me.

The more the adversary is trying to aggressively pursue his interests through his cohorts to influence the pride of world leaders to entice them to start wars, the more ordinary people are beginning to wake up. They are beginning to see for the first time that they are being manipulated by some unseen force. A negative force which they are starting to reject as they begin to choose love rather than hate, they choose peace instead of war and they choose to have understanding, caring and compassion for their fellow brothers and sisters rather than ignorance and selfishness.

My children on the earth plane are starting to question the never ending cycle of wars and destruction that their governments are waging constantly throughout the world as instigators or those that blindly follow their super power friends. My children on the earth plane are beginning to say no to hypocrisy and lies. This will become even more pronounced as the current generations of children who are now growing are indeed comprised of many more older and experienced souls that I have allowed to become reincarnated on the earth plane at this time of great challenge and change for mankind as the world moves from the old, aggressive and uncaring world to a new age of love where my children on earth will indeed be more loving, caring and compassionate according to the example that I provided to them when I walked on the earth plane.

I hope that you can now see, my dear ones, as well as you my dear [scribe], that the adversary too acts to fulfil my holy Plan of Salvation for all my fallen children on the earth plane who must live this final test life on earth. I know that your lives are hard at times and are very challenging, yet this sort of environment which is unique on earth amongst all my celestial globes and throughout all my creations, offers the most scope for learning and growth for your souls whilst you are on the earth plane. It is precisely this reason why there is so much good and evil that co-exists on the earth plane. Everywhere else in my creations there is a separation of the two according my Law of Attraction which really means that like finds like in all the rest of my creations. It is only on earth that good and evil can co-exist in the one location or place.

I would like you my dear scribe and you my beloved children who read these messages to trust in me your Heavenly Father Jesus, that I know what is best for you and your personal development while you are on the earth plane and in the beyond. I place you in all the scenarios that play out in your lives for the personal growth and development of your souls. Believe me when I say that every event that happens to you in your lives has been planned in detail before you start your life on the earth plane. Sometimes, the most challenging things that happen in your lives often lead to the most personal growth for you and your soul. So please place all your trust in me your beloved Heavenly Father Jesus who knows what is best for you and your brothers and sisters.

My dear children, I have stated before through this scribe that he will document for me all the end time events before my eventual return to the earth plane. One of his tasks will be to let mankind know what all the end-time events are before they happen. This is to act as a warning to all my children who are erring on the earth plane, who have not yet found me and are not yet living their lives according to the example I showed you and taught you myself when I walked physically on the earth plane.

Many of my children, many of them which are devout Christians do not believe that I have continued to communicate with my children on the earth plane since I returned to my heavens in my spiritual kingdom. The truth, my dear ones, is that I have never stopped. I have spoken through many seers, prophets and mystics throughout the ages. I continue to do so today through this scribe who I inspire to write down my messages for erring mankind. I did not stop communicating with my children after what was written in the New Testament. I want all my children to understand that I have continued to communicate through many of my children all around the world, mostly in small groups who then pass on my love, guidance and advice to their brothers and sisters.

I have chosen this particular scribe to be one of my end-time scribes as well as a teacher for his brothers and sisters. Through the pen that he holds in his hands, I will communicate many things to my children on the earth plane. Please do not be afraid my dear ones, for this is not a false prophet that is speaking to you from within these pages. If you are in doubt about the authenticity of myself being the writer of these messages, your Heavenly Father Jesus, simply pray to me my dear ones and I will give you an answer either in your dreams, in a vision or in a coincidence in your life which will give you the proof you require to identify me your beloved creator Heavenly Father Jesus that is indeed inspiring my scribe to write down these messages. Then you will no longer doubt the authenticity of these messages.

One of the reasons that I have requested my scribe to write down all the end-time events before they occur is to provide those of my children who need and demand proof before they believe. This loyal scribe will write down all the end-time events before they happen and in circumstances where I will it, that my children know the approximate time in which the events will occur, I will provide those approximate dates. I am aware that many of you who read these messages will not believe in any of the content until the events actually begin to start to take place. It is precisely for these doubting Thomas's that I have decided to provide you with the information before the events take place. I do all these things, my dear ones, because of my great love for you. I urge you all my dear ones to pray to pray to me for my love and guidance to strengthen you against the temptations of the adversary. He is indeed real and is very cunning, the serpent of old. Only with my help will you be able to overcome the temptations, lies and deceit of the old serpent. He has no love in his heart and only wishes to destroy you my dear children because he knows that you are what I love the most. Please pray to me daily for my love and protection, my dear children.

The first end-time event is going to happen soon. There will be a war in the middle east. This will escalate very quickly into a wider conflict that will involve Israel and Syria and many of their neighbours. This will lead to much more loss of life and destruction in the middle east. Israel will throw a nuclear bomb on Syria in the hope that it will end the conflict. This will in fact have the opposite effect my dear children. This act of aggression on the part of Israel will result in a much wider conflict that will result in Israel being conquered for a period of time by its neighbours. This my dear ones is one of the events that I gave allegorically to my disciple John in his Book of Revelation. It is my will that this scribe write down in simple and clear comprehensible language what each of the events referred to in the Book of Revelation are, before they occur on the earth.

All these revelations are now provided to you in simple and clear language as the souls of my children now on the earth plane are mature enough to receive the literal meaning of the revelations. At the time when I walked on the earth plane, my children were not yet ready for this kind of information. This is why I gave the information to John in spiritual correspondences so that he would write them down in allegorical form until this point in time when I can now provide you, my dear ones, with the literal meaning of the revelations.

Please pass on these messages my dear ones to as many of my other children on the earth plane who are prepared to listen. Please pass on my message that that I want my children to convert and turn back to me their loving Heavenly Father Jesus who only wants what is best for them. Only with daily prayer to me will they be strong enough to withstand the final onslaught of the adversary and his followers who aggressively seek to destroy my children on the earth plane. Amen.
