

Monday, 15 September 2014

Good afternoon my beloved [scribe], this is your Heavenly Father Jesus that is here with you my son.

Today, I wish to speak about peace my son, the peace that I give to you as well as your brothers and sisters that will read these messages. I give you peace my dear children in the tough and difficult times that are just about to commence. It is only I, your Heavenly Father Jesus that can provide you with peace in this increasingly hostile world that you live in. Turn to me in all your difficulties and hardships and pray for my love and guidance daily. I will fill you with my holy spirit and will give you peace my dear one's. Peace in your hearts and peace in your lives.

Try your very best to maintain your contact with me my dear ones. Prayer is the only way that you will be able to do this. Prayer to me does not have to be very formal. Simply address me as your Heavenly Father Jesus. Speak to me my dear ones. I am here in the spirit spark that I have placed in your hearts. I am also in every atom of everything that is all around you, right throughout the whole universe. I am truly the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. Everything that exists in all my creations comes from me and is a part of me. In this way, everything that exists being from me, being a part of me, will also one day return back to me one day when it has become perfected.

You my dear children are on this path of perfection. One day, you too will return back to me in my heart from where you originated so that we can become as if one again. You my perfected children in my spiritual kingdom with me, your one and only Heavenly Father Jesus who is truly your good shepherd. Who leads every last child of mine to perfection so that they may once again live with me in my heavens eternally. Which is where you all originated from before your fall, before the adversary Satana or Satan convinced one third of all my created children to turn their backs on me, to stop receiving my life giving and animating love emanations, thereby committing the Sin of Apostacy which is the True original sin. This one third of the population of my heavens who had fallen from my heavens together with the instigator of their fall, the great liar, the great serpent of old, Satana or Satan. It was through his lies and deceptions that he convinced one third of my children to fall from my heavens so many eons ago in the past.

It is my fallen children that comprise the vast majority of my children on the earth plane who live their lives on other planets and suns on their path to perfection. They learn from life to life, they mature their souls and they are given a final test life on earth so that they may accelerate the maturity of their souls and so that they may choose between myself and eternal life and happiness with me in my heavens or my adversary who will only bring death and destruction and many more ongoing cycles of pain, suffering and death through various development cycles that I set for me children.

If an individual soul has chosen the path of selfishness, of anger, hatred, of doing harm to others and has done this through successive lives on other planets and suns where I have placed them, and if I have given them a final test life on earth to make one final decision to choose the path of love according to my teachings, and they have instead chosen to live this final life in darkness, in hatred and selfishness, their soul will be banned into matter once again to start the long journey to perfection if their life on earth coincides with the end of a development period that I alone set.

I set development periods for the purpose of reaping what is sown.

Those souls that have lived their final test life according to the example of love that I showed whilst on the earth plane, will receive eternal life in happiness and joy with me in my heavens.

Those souls that have chosen the adversary and his evil ways, will begin the process again on some distant planet where their soul particles will form part of the rock or structure deep within the planet that I have chosen. The most wicked of my children will have their soul particles banned into the core of planets on the most remote and distant parts of the universe. It will take eons and eons of years again until the rock or stones that their soul particles are in will come to the surface of those planets whereby the loving rains on those planets will dissolve the stones to become algae and primitive plants to then progress into more beautiful flowers and plant life then on to primitive life forms such as insects, then through the various animals in the animal kingdom before I, your Heavenly Father Jesus then collect their soul particles from a collection of various animals with various intelligences and reform the soul once again into a human where they can once again become conscious humans who must continue living human lives on various planets, learning to love, learning to share, learning to be of service to their brothers and sisters.

In this way, they will progress and perfect themselves from life to life. This will then result in my allowing them to live one final test life on earth again so that they may choose me and eternal life and happiness in my heavens or my adversary who will only bring them death and more suffering through his lies and deceptions.

I have arranged everything in such a way that it is all aimed at perfecting the souls of my fallen children. I will not rest until each and every last fallen child of mine has returned back home to me in my heavens perfected once again.

This is a process that commenced many, many eons ago and is likely to take many, many eons until each and every last child of mine is home and safe in the welcoming hands of his or her loving creator their Heavenly Father Jesus.

Throughout this whole process, I set various development periods to mark the timeframes that I can take those of my perfected children home and leave those of my fallen children who have once again fallen for the lies and deception of my adversary to commence the long, long journey of perfection once again.

My dear children, what I am telling you is the truth.

I cannot interfere with your freedom of choice and this is what your life here on earth is meant to be, a place of preparation for your eternal life with me in my spiritual kingdom.

Your soul has gone through the various physical kingdoms since your original fall from my heavens. Your soul has unconsciously progressed through the mineral kingdom, through the plant kingdom and through the animal kingdom. I have provided you with a number of lives as a human on other planets or suns and I have now provided you with your final test life on earth. This special small planet in which all of my created children who wish to become "Children of God" and live with me eternally in my heavens, must come and live a final test life on earth. Yes, my children, earth is a very special planet indeed.

My adversary would like to destroy this special planet and all its inhabitants because he wishes to deprive me of my children who I love above all else. But I will not allow him to destroy earth and all its inhabitants. He is trying very hard to do as much destruction on earth as is possible as he knows that we are nearing the end of another development period. This is why my dear ones, you will shortly see the great wars which will commence on earth. He and his followers, ie. the adversary, is working very hard to influence world leaders to go to war. The adversary and his followers do this by planting negative thoughts into the minds of human beings. This is the way in which he also tempts you my children. He and his followers read your minds, they determine what are your personal weaknesses and they implant negative thoughts in your minds in the hope that you will act on these negative thoughts thereby causing suffering to you and to others. I permit these things to happen as I wish you to fight and overcome your weaknesses on your path to perfection.

As a result of my children's original sin of Apostasy where they originally chose to follow my adversary's lies, I must also permit him to tempt you in this final test life so that you can hopefully make the right decision this time, the decision to love me above all else and to love your brothers and sisters as you love yourselves. After all, my ten commandments were originally given to you so that you could learn to do these two things ie. learn to love me above all else and love your brothers and sisters like yourselves. I want you to earn your right to eternal life and happiness in my heavens in this final test life.

You can learn to love me above all else by observing my creations in the nature around you as well as in developing your personal relationship with me through prayer and building our relationship together through daily mindfulness of me. Speaking to me as if I was there with you, as I am my dear ones. I am the spirit spark in your heart and I am in every atom in everything that you can see around you and throughout the universe. I am truly omnipotent in every way my dear ones. This you will not fully appreciate until you have returned back to me in my heavens. I will not give up on you my dear ones.

Pray and speak with me daily and I will guide you personally every step of the way throughout your final test life. Bring all your troubles and worries to me and ask me to assist you with them. I will not forsake you my dear ones. All you need to do is ask for my help my dear ones. As you have your inviolable freedom of choice, I cannot help you unless you ask for my help. Ask for my love to fill your hearts every day. Ask for my help to guide you daily back to my heavens from where you originated. Ask for my help to assist others that are in need of love, guidance, healing, forgiveness or whatever else they may need to find peace in their lives. A peace that only I, your Heavenly Father Jesus can bring in your lives.

My dear children, the coming years and decades for mankind are indeed going to be the most challenging in human history. The adversary and his cohorts are going to aggressively pursue and torment all my children on the earth plane with the aggressive negative thoughts that they are implanting in the minds of my children all around the world. As the adversary and his followers know the time is limited before the end of this development period, they will influence many of my children to commence wars and commit a lot of atrocities. I want you to pray for peace in this world. Pray for those who commit the atrocities so that their eyes may be opened so that they can see the error of their ways. Pray that I may fill them with my holy spirit so that they may change the path that they are on to a more loving and caring one for their brothers and sisters.

My dear children, you must not hate your brothers and sisters that commit these atrocities as this is what the adversary wants. Hate only leads to more hate in a vicious downward cycle my dear ones. Love those that commit atrocities and pray that I may fill them with my holy love to change the path that they are on. Spread love wherever there is hate and pray for world peace my dear ones as this will enable me to greatly reduce the length and severity of these end-time events that my disciple John foretold in the Book of Revelation around the time that I walked on the earth plane.

Show tolerance for your brothers and sisters who have different views than your own. Show by your personal example that you are following my teachings of love in your lives. Most importantly, spread my love for me in this world. In this way, you will be acting like my true disciples by the example that you set in this very difficult phase of human history which is just about to commence.

I want you all to be peaceful warriors for your Heavenly Father Jesus. I want you to spread the message of love, tolerance and forgiveness for all wrongdoers in the difficult times to come. By actively spreading these teachings in your lives you will be doing a great deal to spread my love and light throughout this world that my adversary seeks to put into perpetual darkness. Pray for your brothers and sisters who are experiencing hardship wherever they may be in the world. Help your brothers and sisters as much as you can. Help those around you by practising acts of kindness. If you need inspiration regarding who you should help, simply pray to me and I will personally inspire you regarding how you can best help your brothers and sisters.

I repeat my dear ones, do not have hate in your hearts for the people that commit atrocities. By having hate for the wrongdoers you will only add to the collective negativity around this world and will be serving the adversary to achieve his aims of destroying all of humanity and this special planet. Have only love and forgiveness in your hearts and spread this love all around the world by imagining my love and your love spreading all over the world, transmuting or changing all the negative energy into my loving, caring and compassionate energy. This, my dear ones, will have a beneficial effect on planet earth in these difficult times which will commence shortly.

My dear ones, I give you my peace and my love in abundance in your hearts so that you may in turn share that peace and love with your brothers and sisters all around the world. Remember my dear ones, sow only loving thoughts and have loving prayers for those that will commit the atrocities that you will shortly witness through your television sets.

For those of my children that will read these messages and will be involved as either soldiers in the armed conflict or as peace keepers following the atrocities that will occur, I ask you to pray to me, for my love and guidance daily. Pray that I may lead you and guide you personally. Pray that I may bring you home safely to your families. Pray for your enemies that I may fill them with my divine light and love. Pray that I may end these conflicts as soon as possible and restore peace and love to this earth.

My dear ones, your prayers throughout these end time events will enable me to greatly reduce the length and severity of the many atrocities that will now befall mankind.

Go in peace my dear ones to spread love and tolerance and forgiveness for the wicked acts that my adversary and his followers will convince certain world leaders and their armed forces to commit soon. Amen.
